As we move into our 2015 Stewardship Campaign, celebrate with us the amazing work of our ministries and pledge your resources to this work.

OUR STORY

DEMONSTRATES THAT GIFTS OF
FINANCIAL STEWARDSHIP CAN MAKE A POSITIVE IMPACT IN OUR LOCAL, NATIONAL, AND INTERNATIONAL FAITH COMMUNITY

On the next pages you will see how we at the First Christian Church of Decatur use our income to sustain our four ministry areas of Worship, Church Community Life, Christian Education, and Outreach. Our property, administration, and personnel all support these four ministry areas, and their expenses have been divided according to the portion used for each ministry area. The sources of the Church's income are also highlighted. We try hard to be creative in our fundraising and to diversify our sources of income, but you will see that the greatest source of income is from our own faithful giving.

As we begin our Stewardship Campaign for 2015, please prayerfully consider your pledge for the continuing ministry of our Church. If you give regularly, but do not pledge, please consider pledging this year, as it helps with the budgeting process. Pledges are exactly what they describe. The pledge indicates to us your plans of contributing over the year--nothing is required of you. Your pledges are confidential, only the treasurer has access to pledge information.

On Sunday, October 26, 2014, we will dedicate pledges for 2015 to the missions of our Church. We look forward to seeing you on this important occasion and to continue the transformative work of the First Christian Church of Decatur in 2015.

A proposed line-item budget for 2015 is available by the doors to the Sanctuary or upon request.

OUR STORY IS ONE OF FAITHFUL STEWARDSHIP

At First Christian Church of Decatur, we set our goal to understand what we do with what we have in light of a biblical model of ideal stewardship. This document narrates our church “budget” with an understanding that real biblical stewardship is far more than just money and building projects.

Four principles of biblical stewardship should be held in our hearts and minds:

1. The principle of ownership.

“The earth is the LORD’s, and everything in it, the world, and all who live in it.” (Psa. 24)

“Remember the LORD your God, for it is he who gives you the ability to produce wealth.” (Deut. 8:18)

2. The principle of responsibility.

“... The Bible constantly asks, What about your responsibilities? Owners have rights; stewards have responsibilities. (Bill Peel)

“Whoever can be trusted with very little can also be trusted with much, and whoever is dishonest with very little will also be dishonest with much. So if you have not been trustworthy in handling worldly wealth, who will trust you with true riches? And if you have not been trustworthy with someone else’s property, who will give you property of your own?” (Luke 16:12-14)

3. The principle of accountability.

“Like the servants in the Parable of the Talents, we will be called to give an account of how we have administered everything we have been given, including our time, money, abilities, information, wisdom, relationships, and authority.” (Bill Peel)

“For whoever has will be given more, and they will have an abundance. Whoever does not have, even what they have will be taken from them.” (Mtt. 25:29)

4. The principle of reward.

“Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart, as working for the Lord, not for men, since you know that you will receive an inheritance from the Lord as a reward. It is the Lord Christ you are serving.” (Col. 3: 23-4)

“Well done, good and faithful servant! You have been faithful with a few things; I will put you in charge of many things. Come and share your master’s happiness!” (Mtt 25:21)

We believe that Christians living in the culture today, a culture which is broken and full of need, model the spirit of Jesus by living out this multi-faceted view of true stewardship. Stewardship, in this sense, is a vocation where “our deep gladness meets the world’s deep need” (Buechner). Through planning the work we do with our resources -- physical, spiritual, emotional -- we endeavor to meet the needs of our church, community, and world. - Bill Peel

The story-formed worship experience enacts a synergy in the preaching of God's message. In our worship the Divine, the community, and the message continually shape our lives through hearing God's story and sharing our own stories. This is the working of divine grace and love in our midst. The liturgical arts and music enhance our expression of this grace. The shifting demographic of our church has had an impact on us. As we celebrate the lives and work of our past church, we now seek to live into our new calling.
